

RISE Delaware: How to Contribute to RISE

Folks—I wanted to let you know that RISE Delaware accepts contributions through our GoFundMe (link below) or via check to our address in the signature block below. We can't take account to account payments like Venmo because our credit union is concerned about the security of these payments.

Maybe this will change in the future but right now there are two ways to contribute—Go Fund Me and checks.

Thanks for your attention to this matter.
