

RISE Delaware Update for April 22, 2023

Governor's Town Hall in Dover on April 27th

Good afternoon—

We know that another Town Hall sponsored by Governor Carney is scheduled for Thursday evening on April 27. The information below came from the Governor's Office. Note that it does not detail where the Town Hall will be at Delaware State University. At the previous Town Hall, we had great questions from well-informed retirees about our healthcare benefits. It would be terrific if we could get people out for this Town Hall who could also ask questions about our healthcare benefits.

If we learn more about the location at DSU, we will send out another email blast. Thanks for your continued engagement and support!
